

Prioritising our Science Evidence and Information needs

Science, Evidence and Information Strategy

Developing GIS

Tactical assessment

24

FSS Scientists/
analysts

Foodborne disease strategy

FSS Horizon Scanning Group

FSS Board outcomes and annual reports

Digital Strategy

FSS analytical skills utilised

Communication and Marketing Strategy

Open data Strategy

Regulatory Strategy

Surveillance Strategy

Enhancing and communicating the science, evidence and information we use

9,268 visits to eatwell guide

&

9,573 visits to the healthy eating tutorial

10 current FSS open data sets

10 SEI web statements produced

27,261

visits to our schools resources web page

4 SEI based consumer campaigns supported with media
interviews

c. 230 meetings with SEI stakeholders

945 digital engagements at 2018 Edinburgh
International Science Festival

c. 35 external science talks given

Briefing paper on Discretionary foods produced

37 SEI training courses attended

6 SEI reports published

23 (10 international) Scientific conferences attended by FSS staff

Providing governance of our science, evidence and information

SEI governance statement on website

Public contract Scotland used for all SEI commissioned over £20k

6 SEI internal seminars

SEI peer Review guidance for staff

SEI checklist for FSS board papers

Managing risks for food and feed safety food standards or diet and nutrition

4 Internal SEI workshops held for staff

6 SEI reports peer reviewed or evaluated

SEI research and campaigns impact and use summary published in Feb 2019

£0.8 million

spent on SEI projects